- 1.1 These general terms and conditions apply to all our engagements and all services provided by Scandinavian Trust AB, 556991-3089, ("Scandinavian Trust" or "we", "us", "our" etc.) to clients ("client", "you", "your" etc.). By instructing or engaging Scandinavian Trust you are deemed to have agreed to these general terms and conditions.
- 1.2 Any references to "services" (Sw. tjänster) refer to our services, and include documents and other results of the work within an engagement. When a reference is made to an "engagement" (Sw. uppdrag), all parts and aspects of a matter shall jointly be considered as one engagement, regardless of whether it involves several legal entities or individuals, several instructions (given at one or several occasions), is dealt with by several teams within Scandinavian Trust, addresses several legal areas and/or legal issues, separate invoices are issued, or if we act for several legal entities and/or individuals.
- 1.3 The engagement is a contract between you and the legal entity of Scandinavian Trust only and not with any specific individual associated with Scandinavian Trust or with any other legal entity. This applies even if it is your expressed or implied intention that the work is to be carried out by a specific individual (or individuals). This means that only Scandinavian Trust can be held responsible or liable for an engagement and the services provided and that you may, not in any circumstance raise any claims against any other legal entity or individual (except as may be provided by mandatory law). These general terms and conditions shall apply also in favour of all other legal entities and individuals associated with Scandinavian Trust (e.g. present and former employees, limited partners, general partners, owners, board members, executive officers and by Scandinavian Trust engaged consultants). Any limitation of liability under these general terms and conditions (such as limitation as to amount) apply both to Scandinavian Trust and all legal entities and individuals associated with Scandinavian Trust, as if they were jointly one person/entity.
- 1.4 Any amendments to, or deviations from, these general terms and conditions must be agreed in writing.
- 1.5 Both Scandinavian Trust and the client agrees to promptly do all that is necessary to perfect and implement the provisions of these general terms and conditions.

2 CLIENT IDENTIFICATION, ETC.

- 2.1 We are according to law required to investigate the identity of our clients and to take certain control actions in relation to such client identification. We are also required to inform suspicions of money laundering and terrorism financing to the police authorities, and we are prevented to disclose to you when we have such suspicions. Further, we are required to identify the ownership structure and any beneficial owners of any entity and also to request information about the nature and objective of the engagement. As a general rule, such information must be provided to us before our work commences. If adequate information and documentation is not provided to us we may decline or withdraw from the engagement.

- 2.2 Consequently, we may ask you to without delay provide us with identification documents and detailed information about your ownership structure and the specific engagement, and we may ask questions with respect to such documents and information. In addition, we may be required to verify the documents and information through independent external sources, e.g. data bases. We are also required by law to retain all information and documentation obtained in connection with the kind of actions described above.
- 2.3 We may be required by law to provide information to the tax authorities relating to the VAT numbers of our clients and the invoiced amounts. By engaging Scandinavian Trust you are deemed to have consented to our compliance with such reporting obligations. The VAT number is unique for every legal entity and your identity will thereby be disclosed to the tax authorities.
- 2.4 We may also, from time to time, request additional information from the client in order to assess whether we can offer certain services (such as director services etc). Such information may be requested either at the start of our relationship with you as well as on an ongoing basis depending on the status of the client and/or the client's request for certain of our services.
- 2.5 We cannot be held responsible or liable for any loss or damage directly or indirectly suffered by you as a consequence of our compliance with the obligations set out in clauses 2.1-2.4 or that we have declined or withdrawn from an engagement pursuant to the terms of those clauses.

3 OUR SERVICES

- 3.1 Teams
 One of our staff members will be primarily responsible for the services we provide you in relation to an engagement. That staff member has the discretion to deploy such other staff that he or she considers should carry out the engagement.
- 3.2 The basis for our services
 Our services are based only on the circumstances, facts and instructions presented to us in the specific engagement by someone who represents you in the engagement (e.g. directors, executives and other involved personnel) or by someone you have appointed (e.g. consultants, suppliers or other advisors (including professionals)). We are entitled to assume that all information given to us are accurate and suitable to carry out the services pursuant to the engagement.
- 3.3 In performing our services we may rely on, and provide you with, information obtained from external parties (e.g. suppliers/advisors appointed for the engagement, previous appointed suppliers/advisors or persons with knowledge of the relevant circumstances) or from public and/or external registers (which stores and publishes information) and/or documents. The information obtained from such external sources may not always be accurate or complete and we have no responsibility to verify that such information is accurate and complete.

- 3.4 Scope of the engagement and instructions
 The content and scope of our engagement may be contained in an oral or a written engagement confirmation or through oral or written instructions. The content and scope can however be revised during the course of the engagement, depending on your instructions or the requirements that apply to the engagement from time to time. In the event that the content or scope of the engagement is revised by someone who is representing you in the engagement, or by someone you have appointed, that person is responsible to inform your other representatives of the revised engagement and we are entitled to assume that all your representatives are informed of the revised content or scope of the engagement.
- 3.5 In performing our services we are entitled to assume, unless you expressly and in writing inform us of the contrary, that each person representing you in the engagement (e.g. directors, executives and other involved personnel) or someone you have appointed (e.g. consultants, suppliers or other advisors) are authorized to give instructions to us on your behalf and that we may act on any instruction given orally.
- 3.6 We have the right to appoint sub-contractors provided that these fulfil Scandinavian Trust's undertaking on services. We are responsible for the work of the sub-contractor as of our own and are entitled to remuneration for work performed by the sub-contractor. We also undertake to be responsible for the sub-contractor following the guidelines and undertakings in other respects applicable to us in relation to the client.
- 3.7 Orally given guidance and comments
 When performing our services, or by your request, we may discuss different aspects, of, and/or other issues related to the engagement and may also informally (e.g. during a telephone call or a meeting) provide comments and answers on queries and legal/accounting issues. Comments and answers given on complicated queries or legal/accounting issues without sufficient time for consideration and/or based on incomplete or inaccurate information, must not be regarded as guidance if the guidance has not been confirmed by us in writing. We are not responsible or liable for any actions or decisions based on any such unconfirmed guidance.
- 3.8 Our engagement is limited to the client
 When we are engaged to represent a corporation or similar legal entity, our engagement is with the corporation or legal entity and not with its executives, shareholders, directors, partners or other persons associated with that corporation or legal entity. Our professional responsibility and liability are owed to the corporation or legal entity that is our client only and not towards any other person. Similarly, when we are engaged to represent an individual, our professional responsibility and liability are owed to that individual only and not towards any other person.
- Our services and guidance are only applicable to the engagement and we have no obligation to update already given guidance or services.
- 3.9 You may not rely on the services provided by us for any purpose, or in connection with any matter, other than for the purpose of the specific engagement and the specific matter, for which it was given. We have no obligation to provide you with any services in relation to the engagement after the engagement is terminated or completed.
- 3.10 Our services are based on the circumstances, facts and legal positions at the time it is given. We have no responsibility to update the services or to provide you with information in regard to subsequent changes in the circumstances, facts or legal positions.
- 3.11 Limitations of our services
 Scandinavian Trust provides services only in relation to corporate matters (including, for the avoidance of doubt, accounting- and payroll support). Scandinavian Trust does not provide legal advice, financial advice, tax advice, accounting advice or advice on the commercial merits of decisions, investments or transactions. Accordingly, we cannot be held responsible or liable for the financial or commercial consequences of the decisions, investments or transactions that you make.
- 3.12 Our services include services only with regards to Swedish law. If we, based on our general experience, would express a view on issues in a jurisdiction other than Sweden, such view does not constitute any advice or services that you may rely on and for which you can hold us responsible or liable. However, at your request, we can assist you in obtaining advice or other services from external suppliers/advisors in the relevant jurisdiction.
- 3.13 Any services or information provided by us in draft versions of any document is preliminary and subject to the wording of our final versions of such document.
- 3.14 Multiple suppliers
 If, for the purpose of the engagement, we appoint or work together with other suppliers of services and/or advisors (which includes professionals that may assist in connection with an engagement), any such supplier/advisor shall be considered to be independent from us in all respects. The reason for this is that the suppliers/advisors co-operating with us are appointed on your behalf and not for the account of Scandinavian Trust. Consequently, we assume no responsibility or liability whatsoever for other suppliers/advisors, whether in relation to any advice given or for the work carried out by them, or for appointing or recommending them. We have no obligation to investigate whether any service or advice given to you by any other supplier/advisor is correct, fit for the purpose or based on correct and relevant facts. Consequently, we assume no responsibility or liability for any damage caused by any information, action, negligence and/or advice given by any such advisor and irrespective, of whether the supplier/advisor has been appointed by us (and may have a contractual relationship with Scandinavian Trust and not with you directly), or if such supplier/ advisor reports to us, or if we are the recipient of its invoice.
- 3.15 Any authority given to us to instruct suppliers/advisors includes, unless you have expressly informed us otherwise in writing, authority to accept limitations of such suppliers/advisors liability on your behalf.
- 3.16 We assume no responsibility or liability for the fees of, or expenses incurred by, other suppliers/advisors. In the event that such suppliers/advisors invoice Scandinavian Trust any fees or expenses, you assume responsibility to indemnify Scandinavian Trust for all costs of Scandinavian Trust in relation to such suppliers/advisors.

3.17 If we and any third party (including suppliers/advisors) would be liable for the occurrence of the same loss or damage suffered by you, our liability for such loss or damage shall be limited to the amount that is reasonable based on the proportion that our fault has in causing the loss or damage. If you have excluded or limited the liability of the third party, our responsibility and liability shall be reduced with an amount equal to the amount that we could have claimed from such third party had its liability not been excluded or limited (and irrespective of whether the third party was able to pay us the amount or not). This clause shall not affect any limitation of liability set out elsewhere in these general terms and conditions or in any engagement confirmation.

4 CONFIDENTIALITY AND INSIDER MATTERS, ETC

4.1 We observe confidentiality and discretion. In certain cases, we may be obliged by law to disclose information. We reserve the right to disclose confidential information to our insurance providers.

4.2 If we carry out an engagement for more than one client, we have the right to disclose such materials and other information that a client has provided in connection with the engagement to the other clients.

4.3 If we appoint or work together with other suppliers/advisors (including professionals) in the course of an engagement, we may provide them with all materials and other information that we believe may be relevant to them in advising or carrying out services for you. The same applies to materials and other information that we have obtained as a result of the checks and verifications carried out by us according to clause 2.

4.4 When a specific engagement has become publicly known we reserve the right for marketing purposes to announce (e.g. on our website) our participation in the engagement and include already publicly known information about the engagement. If we have reason to believe that you may disapprove of such announcement, we will ask for your permission before making the announcement.

4.5 If the specific engagement would involve information that requires that an insider list is maintained according to applicable market abuse laws or equivalent laws and regulations and you wish us to maintain such a list, we expect that you request us to do so expressly in writing.

4.6 If we have maintained an insider list, a copy of the list may be provided to you as soon as possible upon your request, provided you make such request not later than five years and one day after the list was prepared or updated. You are required to keep the list confidential and to use it only in order to comply with your obligations under applicable law.

4.7 We observe confidentiality and discretion in relation to all our clients. Consequently, we have no obligation to reveal information to you that we received from any other client or to your advantage use any information that we have received from another client.

4.8 The services provided by us may constitute a reportable cross-border arrangement, for which a reporting obligation may arise. Information reported to the Swedish Tax Authority (the STA) may be disclosed by the STA to the competent authorities of other EU Member States.

5 ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

5.1 Unless you in writing request us to communicate in some other manner, our communication with you and other parties involved in an engagement will take place mainly through e-mail or the Internet (electronic communication).

5.2 Electronic communication typically involves security and confidentiality risks. Furthermore, there is a risk that filters, firewalls and other security arrangements reject or filter out legitimate e-mails. To ensure that important information reach us, we recommend that you follow up important e-mails by telephone and that you apply appropriate security routines for your electronic communication with us.
